JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $8,157.30, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim	Amount
Bank of America	$1,114.33
Chase Bankcard Services	$1,700.00
CitiBank Fraud Investigations	$5,200.00
E. S.	$142.97

If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $25 shall be made during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with convicted coconspirator Stephen James Hunter (Case No. SACR05-00004-DOC) for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Paul Vahid Evans, is hereby committed on the Single-Count Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of time served.

It is further ordered that the defendant only be released to the U.S. Marshals Service or a United States Probation Officer who is ordered to transport defendant to the designated residential reentry center when a bed becomes available.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall reside for a period not to exceed 6 months in a residential reentry center (RRC) under the community corrections component, as directed by the Probation Officer, and shall observe the rules of that facility. Subsistence fee is waived as the Court finds the defendant does not have the ability to pay.
2. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318, including the condition that the defendant shall not commit any violation of local, state, or federal law or ordinance.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from his person;
4. The defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
5. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall also submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and to at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;

6. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, saliva, and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs and alcohol and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;
7. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of the defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer;
8. The defendant shall participate in a mental health counseling program as directed by the Probation Officer, until discharged by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
9. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of treating the defendant's drug or alcohol dependency and psychiatric disorder to the aftercare contractor during the period of community supervision, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3672. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer;
10. The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds greater than $500, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements, and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation;
11. The defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport, or any other form of identification in any name other than the defendant's true legal name; nor shall the defendant use, for any purpose or in any manner, any name other than his true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer;
12. The defendant shall not possess, have under his control, or have access to any firearm, explosive device, or other dangerous weapon, as defined by federal, state, or local law;
13. The defendant shall submit person and property to search or seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement officer with or without a warrant and with or without reasonable or probable cause;
14. The defendant shall report to the United States Probation Office within 72 hours of his release from custody; and

USA vs. PAUL VAHID EVANSDocket No.: SA CR06-0142 DOC

15. The defendant shall report in person directly to the Court within 21 days of his release from custody, at a date and time to be set by the United States Probation Office, and thereafter report in person to the Court no more than eight (8) times during his first year of supervised release.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment and mental health counseling providers to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or psychiatric disorder. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
